Hey Matthew!
It's been nice young to school with you good luck in College
your friend Garth 76" I do my best Matthew, I had to do your Senior Year before the time as a "Freshmen" & I met you. H.
Get to know you.

MATTHEW:
An interesting person is usually full of vigor, surprises, extemement and... simply bubbly. These qualities do a good job in you complementing your strong character.
Continue to have Christ as your friend and you will succeed in every thing.

Dear Matthew
It has been a lot of knowing for me all these years
have fun this summer and good luck in the years to come.
Your friend

Matthew: Truly, really, in joyous.
Mathew: I've known best 5 years.
John: Enjoyed pure life in 5 years to come.
John: Louis, like John: "18".

Dear
Matthew, I had to do my best year before
I started to get to know you.
Anyway, I'm glad you met you. Have a nice time as a "freshman".
OK? OK. See you and Bless.
Love Maggie '73.

Dear Father,
I am sending you a copy of the newspaper
from China.
It is written in Chinese and is not in English.

Stairs all on I hope that you the way, you didn't invite me apologize, I'll forgive you. But you luck anyway & you have my Blessings
you lucky Devil, see ya,
Love, Linda

MATTHEW CRUZ

Matthew all in all this annual is pretty good. I'm glad after where done with high school and looking forward to college and all the fun we'll have in the down. Kevin is doing great in his first year at the local college. He's taking a lot of hard classes but he's doing well.
He's also working part time at a local grocery store. He's been working there for about a year now.
He's a good worker and always has a smile on his face. He's so good with people and he's a real asset to our family.

I shall never forgive you for ruining my reputation this year. Everytime I attempted to bug you, you would reverse the attempt and bug the daylights out of me.
You've put out a great yearbook use your various talents wisely, Q.S. this year.
done, and you'll go very far in life.
It's been great knowing you have

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The most important element in the life of an individual is time. In the 90th division of the Psalms we read: "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

Human beings do not naturally appreciate the blessings of time. During childhood and adolescence we waste it; we misuse it; we take it for granted; we get bored with it; we even, at times, wish we did not have it. Some individuals are never able to cope with the responsibility of handling time. Most of us though, begin to "number our days" by early adulthood. By this period of our lives we begin to realize that time lost could mean an eternity lost. Some progress even further by grasping the soul-saving truth that time without God leads to a godless eternity.

Young friends, never forget that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." It is my sincere hope that your stay here at Lynwood Adventist Academy will have helped you to value the gift of time. Most of all, may it have led you to choose to serve the Author of time, so that you may one day have the incomparable joy of living with Him throughout eternity.

Lovingly,

Roland L. McKenzie

A TIME

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

The background of the page features a close-up photograph of a large tree's trunk and branches. The trunk is dark and textured, with several thick, light-colored roots hanging down from its base. The branches are bare or sparsely leafed, reaching out towards the top right. The sky behind the tree is a clear, pale blue.

In the beginning,
We understand
Neither the universe,
Nor the world,
Nor people,
Nor ourselves.
Blindly, we reach.

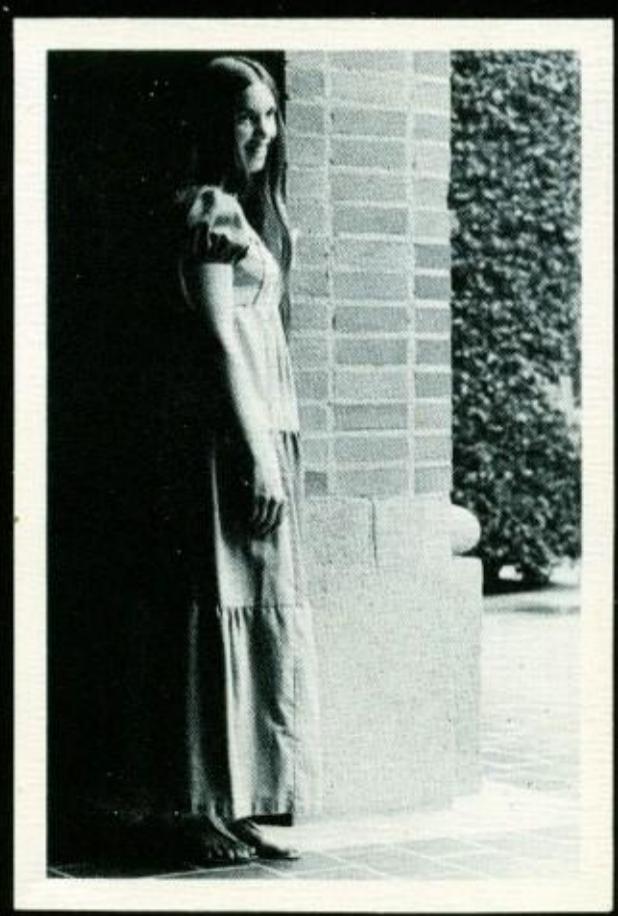

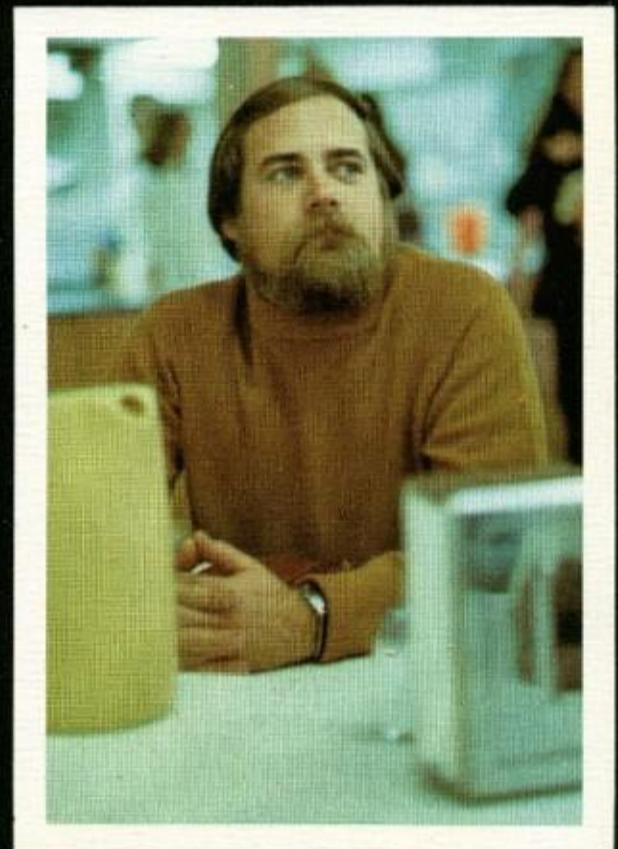

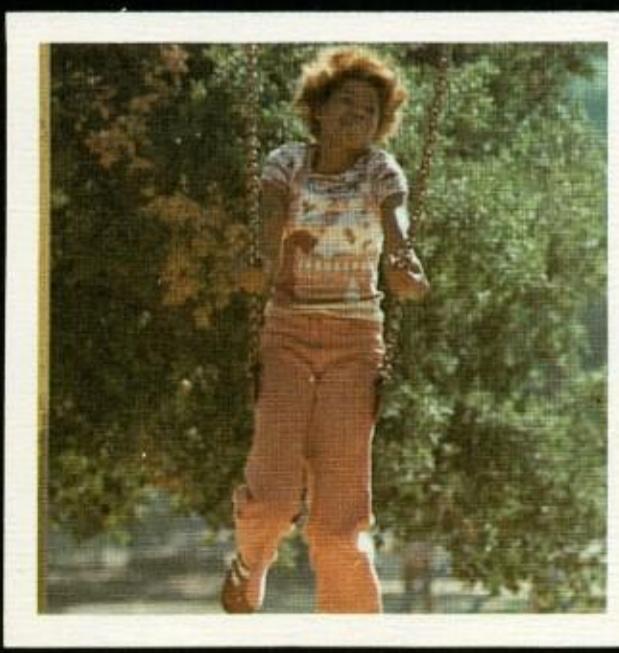

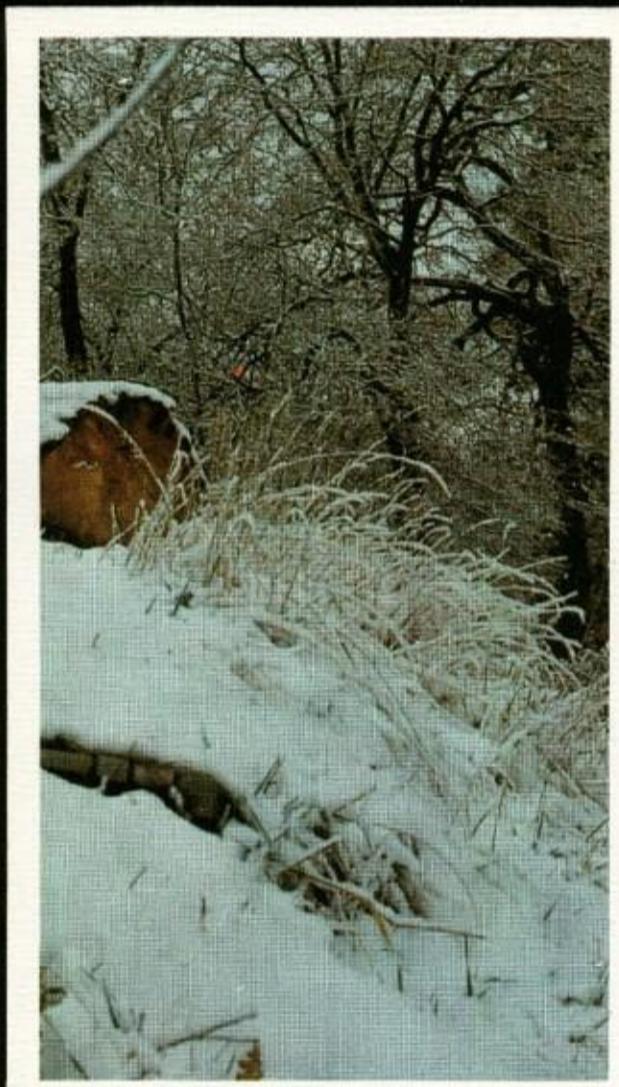

We push forward individually
To prepare for the time when
The future becomes the past,
The dream becomes a reality,
A life imagined becomes a life lived.

Hoping to remember the memories
That must be left forever untouched,

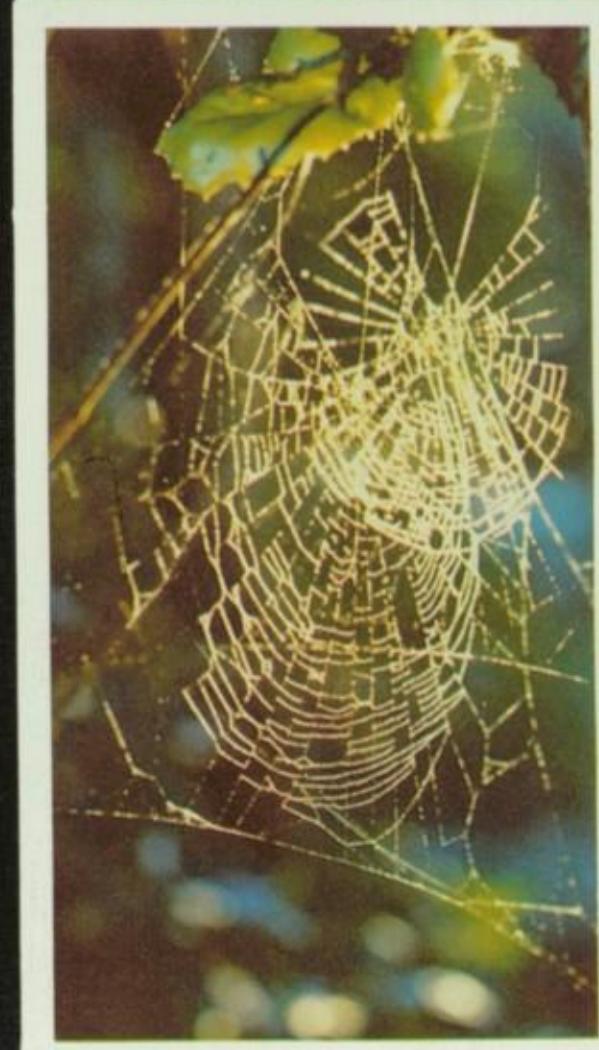

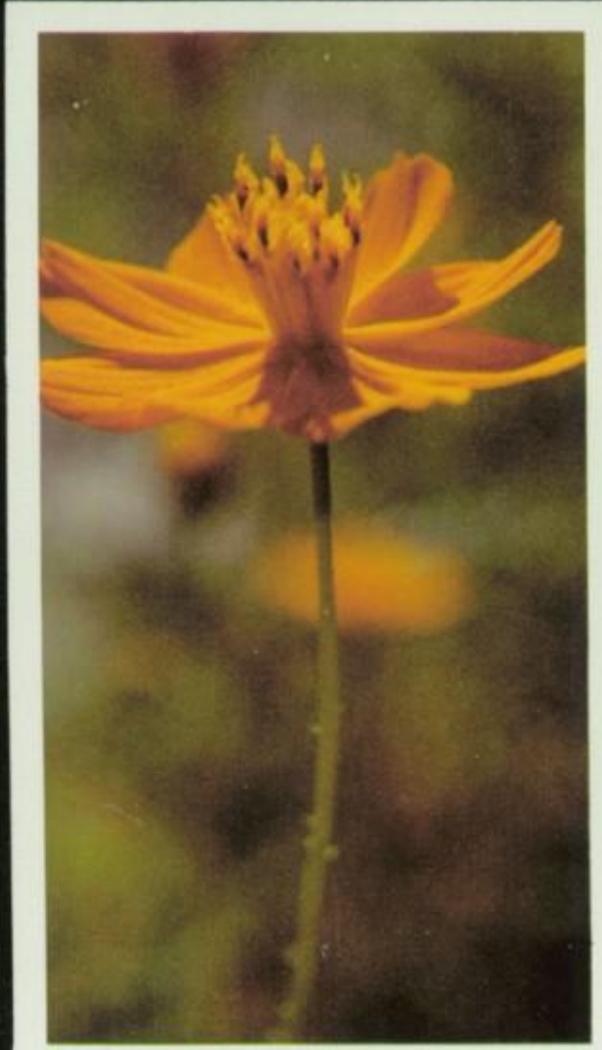

We pause to remember the good times,
Before movin' on through time.

Dedication

Because of:

- ... their willingness to help anytime, and to listen to our problems,
- ... their understanding in the classroom when we just didn't grasp the meaning of what they were teaching us,
- ... their patience in helping us struggle through the hard times,
- ... their interest in us not only as students to be taught, but as people to be valued as individuals,
- ... their example to us as Christian teachers and friends...

Because of all they have meant to us this year and past years, we dedicate to the Faculty of Lynwood Adventist Academy the 1975 Shipmate.

Log Campaign

Face it, the Log picnic was a whole lot better than the Log campaign. Other than a lot of noise from the Freshmen, and a really ace phone booth skit by the Seniors, the campaign was a flop. Well, maybe not a flop, but three, maybe four, time extensions to a campaign is hardly what you could call a blinding success. Picnics mean Irvine Park, baseball, football, food, rowboat sinkings, bicycle crashes, sunburn, and all kinds of good stuff. A ~~Gathings~~ to-Trask touchdown pass ended the first annual Puff Bowl Football Classic. It was the only score of the thrilling contest. The Faculty, of course, stomped the Seniors in Baseball, 8-7. We survived.

Clean-up Day

There's more to religion than just talk. So during our fall Week of Prayer, we put the Christ - like theory into action with a clean-up day. We picked up trash, slicked up vacant lots, and painted out graffiti. Christians should be concerned about their environment. We were. It was fun and we were able to witness for the Lord with our service to the community.

Candlelight Service

The Candle light Service is throat-lumpy time at the old schoolhouse. We know that the performers act like absolute savages, at least part of the time. But when they march in singing, they look and sound like a perfect replacement for the fallen third. This year we had a voice choir that performed a Christmas Cantata with the Concert Choir. Some people liked it. The band played their two or five numbers and quit for the night. The Lynaires split into five different groups and sang Hodie Christus Natus Est from all over the chapel. Super five-track stereo. The congregation sang a few carols, contributed to the offering plate, and went away with a blessing. So did we.

Student Leadership Day

Christmas Banquet

The Christmas banquet was a hometown affair. Cruz and his crew of elves transformed the cafeteria with a magical poof, complete with chants and incantations, which took about eighteen hours of class and sleep time. The food was local and prepared by Lois Johnson. It was some of the best food we have had at a banquet. Usually we have to stop at the Pup 'N T. on the way home to keep away the pangs. Even the entertainment was our own--students singing, playing and telling really bad jokes (elephants yet!). Jolly ole Saint Catchings pelted us with candy canes and broke up the party. Nobody, but nobody, went straight home, as directed by Mr. McKenzie in his closing prayer.

I have known you since the 8th grade and I've enjoyed every minute of it. Your personality is unique. Every time you're around, you add a little sunshine to my day. Thank you. Matt., your friendship has meant a lot to me. You have great potential, I'm sure you will succeed in whatever you endeavor to do.

I won't be going to La Sierra next year so I won't be seeing you much. Still, I hope that we'll be able to keep in touch. Maybe in ten years we'll meet again and you would've turned out to be an architect after all.

Remember, you can always find a friend in me.

well (such a great summer, and a great forever!) have a good yearbook (such a great summer, and a great forever!) have a great summer, and a great forever!
Love ya "Pat" '75!

Dear Matthew,
Matthew, you did a good job on your wood. But I could say much for the company's annual kind of show. I think you was kind of wrong to your luck. I have a really good picture of myself talking. Circle your name. When you do it. I must go. God bless you.
Right from Martha

Matthew,

Well this year has really gone by fast
I hope you stay the way you are. And always remember me.
Keep every thing together & Good Luck
in what ever you do.

Love,

Debbie

Matthew,
Well, it's all over now.
I'm glad I got to know you here at Lynnwood these past two years. It's too bad this yearbook didn't turn out as good as planned, but you still worked hard and did a very good job. Good luck in your future your friend,

With over 35 departments, we need you in our constantly growing scene!

Congratulations to Emily Hess

FROM DADDY, TOBY and Mommie

Dear, dear Matthew, it has been an experience most unusual and unique to have been exposed to you. I may never be the same again and I owe it all to you and the others in our French class. Firstly, all superstars like us should be remembered for our great achievements. These outstanding events include our debuts in social affairs such as our parties (Cindy's house on the occasion of our

Life is full of promises.

Spanish Club party...) I shall never forget how loving you were to one of the two dearest beings in my life. He is very fond of attention and affection from the "Big" Kids. And you know what, I know you are going to be the best Daddy someday. What tremendous potential you have, little one! You are on your way to the top and this is good. How very humble I feel when I become startlingly aware of my responsibilities towards you "little flock." It makes me feel ever so bad(ly) when I come to the harsh realization that I have not been everything that I wanted my students to become. Can you please find it in your heart to forgive me? Please try very hard to remember those better moments in our relationship. Both of us were Green freshman when we first came to Lynwood. And now here you are, a Sophisticated, poised senior ready to depart.

And traps!

In your Freshman year, you were barely learning to take the first steps of high school life and now you are eager to try out your wings and set out for the unknown beyond!

Comme le temps passe!

Do you think for one moment - that I can ever forget how helpful you have been to me, in more ways than one?

merci beaucoup

for having helped me in Womanhood Week!

merci for the NICE yearbook! I particularly have appreciated the thought provoking theme: time

Life is full of promises. Especially when it comes to job offers. High Pay.

Short hours. Long vacations. But there's always one trap.

Most offers stress everything but the job itself. Now, after all, if you don't enjoy your work no amount of fringe benefits can make up for it.

At Glendale Adventist Medical Center the job itself is an incentive.

In addition to the fringes. So, whatever your major, write for our brochure,

"The More You Give." No traps involved.

Glendale Adventist Medical Center, 1509 Wilson Terrace,

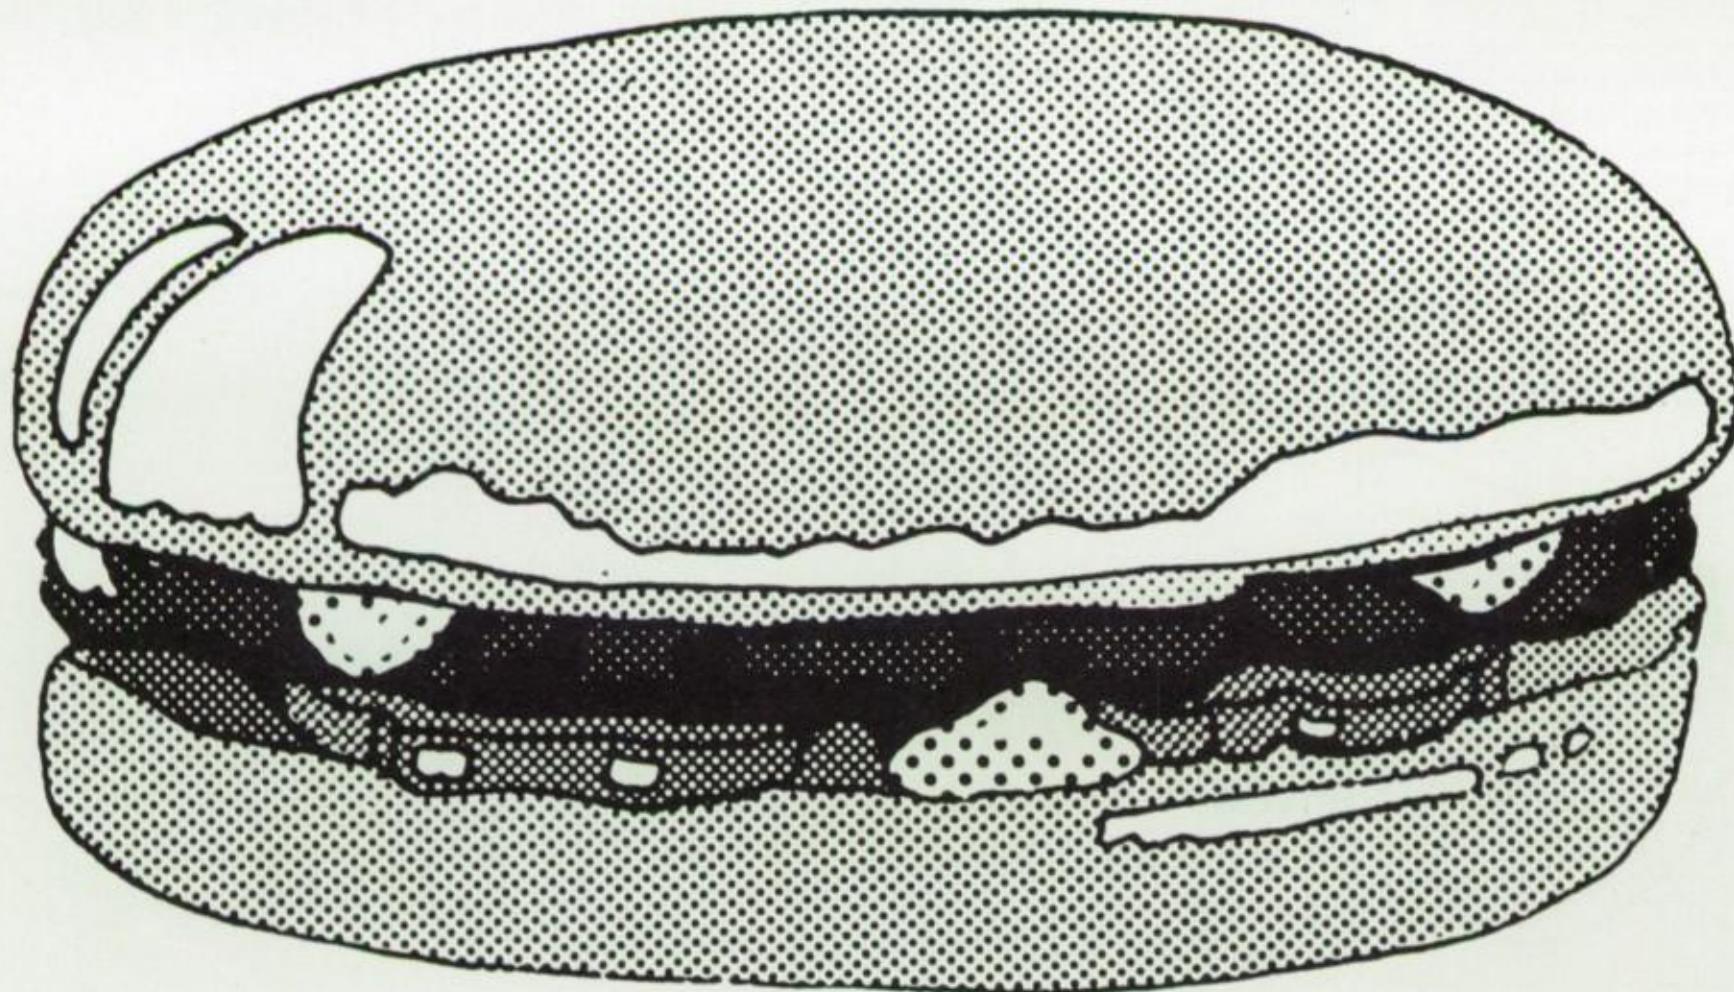

Glendale, CA 91206

Let me urge you to continue to shine for ye Lord. He is in need of young men like you. Be the best of whatever you can for Him. Thank you for being my student and for bearing with me but most of all - for being a worthwhile friend.

I love you "Clown".

Dear Pierce's Voice,
Actually I do believe I knew the voice sophomore year before I knew the creature it inhabits. As a matter of fact, at that time I wasn't sure I'd ever find out who owned the voice! I've always sort of liked you, but goodness knows why!! I couldn't figure that out then, and I'm sure I can't now that you belong to the Fourth Estate opposition. I attribute it to an unac-countable taste for monsters. Actually you remind me of my "little" brothers. (Another monster.) Anyway, I'm glad you've been at Lynwood while I have.

Dearest Matthew,

Where to begin! Where to begin!

Hell Matthew,

It looks like
we finished another year of French class.

Est-ce le peu aller
au W.C.! Parlez-vous français? Good luck!
at La Siena with Ray

to Matthew Roy

you're a cool white boy!

Especially since you put me in the annual so much.
I know you'll have success in the future, by the way you syke people out!

Later Jack

Jean.

I don't really know you as a friend; but I think you're a good guy as a friend. Please make known to La Siena. Lots of luck to Matthew.

Hiya Cruz!
Well, our duties are finally over. I've never gone thru anything quite so hairy!! (or rewarding). Sure helps you to realize the extent of your potential. That one rainy day after school had to be the limit! I've never heard the bear growl so much in all my life.
One thing I super appreciated was the eager openness with which you received suggestions. Your patience with my forever question "Whatcha doin'?" will always be vivid in my mind. See, I have this infinite curiosity and feel quite left out unless I have the hoedown on every little. Your talent spills out all over the place and especially glows when vented in Cindy. You're a romantic from way back. She's an awful lucky little woman. We did produce a work of art, now didn't we?! THANK FOR INCLUDING ME ON YOUR STAFF. YOU'RE A GREAT BOSS!
